Spotlight on Speaker

Nico Groenewald (Head Agribusiness, Personal and Business Banking, Standard Bank of SA)

Nico was born in 1966 in the Northern Free State, raised and completed his schooling in Mpumalanga Highveld.

He completed his BSC Agricultural Economics degree at the University of Pretoria in 1988.

After completion of compulsory military service, Nico joined Standard Bank as an aspirant Agricultural Advisor.

In the early 90's he moved on to the (then) Co-Operative landscape as an Agricultural Production Economist in the Eastern Free State where he was responsible for winter/summer cash crop budgets, farm risk analysis and farm viability assessments.

Nico re-joined Standard Bank in 1997 in the Agricultural Credit Department as a Credit Manager and also completed his MBA at the University of the North West.

Since 1997 Nico fulfilled various roles and leadership positions within Standard Bank's Credit and Business Units, closely linked to Agriculture.

Nico was appointed as Head of Agribusiness in 2013.

Nico lives in Pretoria, together with his wife Tessa, and their 2 children. He enjoys endurance sport, outdoor life, and also farms part time in Mpumalanga.

Nico and his team are constantly identifying emerging trends and its underlying drivers in Agriculture, focusing on the value chains which provide several opportunities to cement Agribusiness as a prominent sector, providing sustainable existence for mankind.

Nico and his team also have a strong focus on the dynamics between the fine balance of improving efficiencies within a commercial framework and business expansion.
